FOR JUDGE OF COURT OF APPEALS.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FIFTH APPELLATE COURT OF KENTUCKY:—I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. As Circuit Judge, it became my duty to try a number of criminal cases, which have become a part of the State's history and at a most critical time. As Judge of the State Fiscal Court, it fell to my lot to construe the Statutes adopted, to put in force the provisions of the new Constitution, as well as to construe the present Constitution whenever a controversy arose as to its proper construction. Almost innumerable cases have burdened the dockets of my court, touching the rights of corporations and the exercise of franchise under law. How well I have discharged my duties under such trying circumstances, is left to you to determine.

I will be very grateful to all who feel they can assist me to secure the high position and office to which I aspire.

Very respectfully,
JAMES E. CANTRILL.

Grand Opening.

Mr. D. D. and Mrs. N. D. Connors have purchased the interest of Mr. Sterling in the business of the Fordham Hotel, and on April 4th, county court day, will have a grand opening. This will, indeed, be good news to the traveling public, who have, in days gone by, been the guests at the Fordham, when, under the management of these popular and experienced host and hostess. With the police and genial Dan behind the counter in the office, and with Mrs. Connor at the head of the culinary department and the rooms, where would you expect to be entertained better. The rooms have been thoroughly renovated and everything, in fact, about the house looks as if it was in Easter attire. Mr. and Mrs. Connor are determined to make the Fordham second to none in Kentucky, and you will only have to pay them a visit to find out that they mean what they say. 3t
